PRESIDENT'S LETTER

Hi to all NAA Members and congratulations on the Nevada Day Show. As you will read in the Judges, Louise Evans comments:" it was great as always and very diverse and unique".

Sabina and Dorrine are both on cruises for a couple of weeks, so I hope we can get along without them, everyone try really hard!! But, Bob and I will try to fill in so don't hesitate to call.

I am however taking bets on whether Dorrine try's to get the Captain to turn the ship around at some point and try to get back home. Just kidding Dorrine.

Thanks to all participating artists, Louise Darden

Holiday Workshop Offered By Mark Thompkins

The painting will be two poinsettias with a painted on mat.

The class starts at 9 AM in the art room at the Brewery Arts, and the classes finish around 3:00 to 3:30 pm. The class fee is $45,. The drawings will be supplied for each student to transfer onto their paper. Paintings are the following: Contact Mark at (775) 783-4046

On Oct 12, 2009, we had a lovely demonstration by Lee Lewis, silk painter and owner of the new Heartstrings store in the Copeland Center in Minden. She uses water based resists in metallic colors, Jacquard and Tinfix dyes showing us fun ways to manipulate color on silk. She paints 4 days a week and uses one synthetic brush for the entire piece, applying up to 4 layers of dye. See her beautiful work in the Artisan Store. Thank you for sharing with us, Lee.

Judge Louise Evans Comments ON 59th Nevada Day Show

BEST OF SHOW: First initial impact from a distance, bold, eye catching. Upon closer examination, impressed with the difficulty and time necessary to obtain the illusion of modeling.

SHOW OVERALL: Once again a very good show. Some categories especially water media was difficult to judge. The first five places could be interchanged.

The first place in acrylic was my second choice for best of show.

The show overall displayed an extreme wide range of techniques, style and subject matter. I'm intrigued with the technique/media of First Place in the "Other" category.

Congratulations to all of you !!!!
